

Areti LLP is a modern accounting and consulting firm located in the heart of Vancouver's historic Yaletown. Our mission is to help entrepreneurs define what success means to them and help them achieve that success. We do that by being curious - asking questions, seeking to understand, and taking a genuine interest in our clients.

We are currently seeking a Senior Manager aficionado to join our team.

Is this you?

You have bold new ideas, courage under fire and an entrepreneurial spirit. You want to join up with a group of critical thinkers who strive to reinvent how accounting is done and have fun along the way. Lastly, you have an insatiable drive to do what others think is impossible.

What you'll love about your experience at Areti

- Our people thrive on being engaged, curious, collaborative, and ambitious (for both themselves and our clients).
- Our office is in a funky brick building in Yaletown, right next to the Canada Line.
- We have effective staff meetings and fun activities to open our communication channels and foster teamwork.
- We are passionate about mentorship and the growth and development of our employees.
- We all know tax season is grind-time wherever you are. Still, at Areti, you can proudly say you are a part of a unique culture different from any other firm.

How you will add value to our team

With your superb technical proficiency and knowledge to handle tax, assurance & accounting engagements, and projects, you will oversee client file deliverables and conduct comprehensive file reviews to ensure complete client satisfaction. As a trusted advisor to our clients, your entrepreneurial approach will help their businesses navigate financial and operational challenges.

Your other duties will include:

- Developing Staff and Senior Accountants through day-to-day coaching, proactively sharing knowledge and experience, internal training delivery, providing constructive performance feedback on file engagements and assignment of challenging work opportunities;
- Maintaining solid client relationships and establishing expanded business as appropriate;

- Evaluating client business processes and policies, providing advice on policy and tax changes and developing proactive tax strategies;
- Handling complex tax return preparation and compliance work;
- Contributing to the successful recruitment of new employees;
- Being a positive role model who consistently personifies the firm's values.

As the ideal candidate:

- You hold a post-secondary degree or diploma in accounting or business administration.
- You have a minimum of 5 years experience in public accounting.
- You hold current CPA (CA, CGA, or CMA legacy) designation.
- You are an outside-of-the-box thinker dedicated to meeting or exceeding client expectations and requirements.
- You have proven people management and development skills; you are adept at providing frequent and valuable performance feedback to develop and build employees.
- You are known to be a strong communicator, both verbally and written. You practice active listening.
- You are self-motivated to consistently meet or exceed targets, steadfastly pushing yourself and encouraging others. You thrive under pressure.
- You have excellent time management skills, including multitasking and producing timely, high-quality results.
- You are highly motivated, energetic, and have a positive attitude.
- You can effectively utilize technology solutions and have a comprehensive understanding of systems information flow.
- You have a thirst for knowledge, and you are always looking to learn and grow.
- You have intermediate to advanced computer skills (MS Office).

Perks of the gig:

- Mimosa Mondays.
- Tax season treats (regularly).
- Tax recovery week (1st week of May).
- Team excursions.
- Lowkey "Tax on Tap" in the office.
- 4-day work week (July to December).
- Holiday office closures.
- Dog-friendly workspace.
